The Citation was issued on the basis of a judgment against the judgment debtor and in favor of the judgment creditors in the amount stated above.

NOTICE: The court has issued a Citation against the party named above, The Citation directs that person to appear in court to be examined for the purpose of allowing the judgment creditor to discover income and assets belonging to the judgment debtor or in which the judgment debtor has an interest. The Citation was issued on the basis of a judgment against the judgment debtor and in favor of the judgment creditors in the amount stated above. On or after the court date stated above, the court may compel the application of any discovered accounts toward payment of the judgment. If you do not answer or come to the court date listed above, the judge may do one of two things: 1) issue a rule to show cause, or 2) enter a conditional judgment. If there is a rule to show cause court date, you will have to explain why you did not come to court on the court date and why you should not be found in contempt of court. If you do not come to the rule to show cause on the set court date, the judge may find you in contempt, and you might be arrested and jailed. If the court enters a conditional judgment, you will have 30 days to answer or appear. If you fail to do so, then the court may enter a final judgment against you.
